

What's Happening: AWA Hikes

We are pleased to announce that our 2018 hiking season is off to an incredible start! We have already completed our first three hikes, one to the Sandhills of the Ghost-Waiparous Public Lands, another through the picturesque Whaleback, and lastly, a beautiful walking tour across Calgary's Nose Hill Park.

Some of our hikes have already sold out and spots are filling up fast, so register soon!

---

AWA Hike: Porcupine Hills

Thursday June 28, 2018

Situated between the mountains and prairies, the rolling Porcupine Hills contain an equally rich ecosystem and history.

Register

---

AWA Hike: Wainwright Dunes

Thursday July 5, 2018

The Wainwright Dunes Ecological Reserve is famous for its sand dunes that can reach heights of 30 meters.

Register

---

AWA Hike: Crowsnest Pass-Five Mile Basin

Saturday July 14, 2018

A beautiful hike at Five Mile Basin, complete with a unique view of Crowsnest Mountain, the Seven Sisters, and the Crowsnest valley.

Register

---

AWA Hike: Mustang Hills

Thursday July 19, 2018

Named for the feral horses that live in the area, Mustang Hills are of modest stature and offer stunning views of the Kananaskis Range.

Register

Dedicated to the conservation of wilderness and completion of a protected areas network, AWA inspires communities to care for Alberta's wild spaces through awareness and action.

Donate

---

Copyright © 2018 Alberta Wilderness Association, All rights reserved.

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.