

As Wildfire Rages Across California, Edward Struzik Talks About How Wildfire Will Shape Our Future

Tuesday Nov. 20, 7pm (doors open at 6:30) UofA School of Business Room 2-9

As the tragedy of California's wildfires continues to unfold, please take advantage of this exceptional opportunity to hear the award-winning science/environmental writer Edward Struzik talk about wildfire, Parking is marked in blue on the map. There is hourly parking along Saskatchewan Drive - from due north of the Business building your would be a walk of about 100 metres. Public parking also is found why wildfire is destined to play an important role in our future, and what society needs to do to cope with its ascendancy.

The map above shows you where the School of Business is located (the green marker).

in the lots just off of 111 Street - southeast of Business. The LRT station is located on 89th Ave., just south of Rutherford Library South. This AWA talk is sponsored generously by Jackson Power and the Wildbird General Store.

Dedicated to the conservation of wilderness and completion of a protected areas network, AWA inspires communities to care for Alberta's wild spaces through awareness and action.
